HIGHBRIDGE ENGLISH (ABRIDGED) 6H

by Jared Diamond, PhD
read by Grover Gardner

The Fates of Human Societies

Winner of the Pulitzer Prize
This book dismantles racially based theories that blame hunter-gatherers for history's broad strokes, arguing that Stone Age hunter-gatherers were the most advanced societies of their time, and that the history we know today is a history of conquest and domination.

2) Click on the item you would like to return. (Do not click on the play button).

3) Click Return Now.

Once borrowed, the return date of the item is displayed. It will be automatically removed from your account on this date (3 days for movies & TV shows; 7 days for music albums; 21 days for e-books, audiobooks and comics) at 8:00 pm. There is no risk of late fees.

There is a monthly borrowing limit of five titles; borrowing limits automatically reset on the first of each calendar month; any unused check-outs do not carry over to the next month. You can return a Borrowed item early but it will not give you another checkout for that month. The only reason to return an item early would be to free-up space on your device.
